Golf Team

The golf team, under the leadership of captains Hawley, Simonian and Walker, captured its third league title in as many years. Key wins included knocking off Wachusett away, and Gardner on their home course, something that no team had done in over 3 years. Contribution came through everyone on the team, especially sophomore Tim West, and junior sensation Mike Mitrowski who medalled in a combined 9 out of 16 times. The team won the League tournament, won the district championship and placed seventh in states. The final regular season record was 13-3. The golf team was also the first team to bring back the first two championship trophies to the new high school.

BOYS' CREW: Seniors Jacob Appelbaum, Ian Bouchard, Patrick Casey, Dan Chaparian, Kevin Daley, Nicholas Lake, Michael Morand, Peter Mulcahy; Juniors Charles Abdelahad, Ryan Carbone, Stephen Godek, Ken McWilliams, Alex Rinkus, Patrick Stewart; Sophomores Steve DeMartini, John Lindeborg, Dan Lodowsky, Felix Malinkevich, Sean McEntee, Matt McLure, Zachary Peeples, Jarrett Simisky, Tevor Sullivan; Freshmen Dan Belanger, Ryan Clark, Kevin Frederickson, John Hally, Chris Kalinowski, Steve Mulcahy, James Sefton, Andrew Simpson, Rob Stefani, Davis Woodruff. Coaches are Mrs. Krause and Mr. Butterfield.

Shrewsbury High's finest oarsmen again rose to the occasion during the Fall season. After performing well in both the Textile Regatta and the New Hampshire Championships, the team pulled through a stern headwind and fierce competition to bring home the title at the Massachusetts Public Schools Regatta on our own Lake Quinsigamond.

The Team welcomed a freshmen class that produced one of the strongest JV crews in recent memory. They also dedicated the new expanded Donahue Rowing Center, featuring a new bay to call "home" for the Fitz, the Jimmy and the Burns.

With the Championship Cup in hand, the team lead by Captains Jacob Appelbaum and Peter Mulcahy, look forward to winter training and to what then lies ahead: the spring season and hopefully more hardware for the Shrewsbury Crew Team.

Field Hockey

After graduating eight seniors last year, the Field Hockey Team was faced with a restructuring of positions with only five returning starters. Throughout the summer, the team worked hard with the help of some extraordinary coaches. Cesar Gistain from Spain and David Mike from Australia both helped in refining our skills.

When it came to game play, there was clearly a difference. The passing, communication, dribbling, and defense had fine results due to our coaching. We started by defeating the city teams: Burncoat and Doherty, racking up goals early in the games. As the season progressed, some hopes were dashed as Senior Kate Gannon was lost to the starting lineup by injury. Fortunately some players were able to step in and score when it was needed.

On offense, two Telegram & Gazette top scorers, Senior Captain Lauren Golato and Sophomore Shannon Slaughter, contributed to wins.

The team was also lead by Captains Keely Nowosacki and Ashley Orlando. The two girls worked as a wall for anyone travelling down the middle of the field as well as on corners. Junior Mary Hogan was another key contributor due to her strong stick work and hard intimidating hits. Others who helped to hold up the defensive wall were Meg Murray, the very reliable sweeper, Meg Henderson and Melissa Scanlon blocking up the sidelines, as well as Freshman Cara Howe.

Throughout the season, other players were able to step it up when it was needed. Great support and energy came from Seniors Gina Ricciardi, Jackie Thibault, Juniors Sharon Hwang, Jaime MacLeod, and Julie D'Alessandro; Sophomores Alexa Padavano, Erin Johnson, Diana Magner; and Goal Keeper Nicole Johnson. Some younger contributors were Michelle Pasquale and our "Animal of a Goaltender" Rachel Floyd.

The season was full of excitement. At mid-point, there was a long streak of ties, coupled with a few losses, but the team kept it together. After an overnight trip to Camp Harrington, the spirit of the team was renewed and strengthened, leading to success. As Districts came along, we had a big win against league rival Wachusett 1-0. A week later, we played in the first round of the Districts, losing 2-1. The team played their hearts out and were strong through every minute of the game. Season record was 7-5-7. Lastly, we had three Mid-Wach Interscholastic League All-Stars; Lauren Golato (for her second year), Keely Nowosacki (for her third), and Shannon Slaughter. Keely was also named to the Massachusetts "Best of 60" All-Stars for players throughout the state.

After losing 20 of last year's starters to graduation, the Colonials knew that they had a great task ahead of them this season. Lead by Captains Dan Cronin, Sam Perotto, Justin Onorato and Stephen Robitaille, they worked hard to keep up in the tough Division 1. This is Shrewbury's second year in this division after being "promoted" after their Championship season the previous year. The Colonials are 3-7 heading into Thanksgiving Day against long time rival Milford. For the Seniors, Thanksgiving is like a superbowl, as "they" haven't lost to Milford during "their" careers at SHS. This year, the team won against North Middlesex, Algonquin and Shepard Hill.

Volleyball

"Only as high as I reach, can I grow. Only as far as I seek, can I go. Only as deep as I look, can I see. Only as much as I dream, can I be."

Bonded by teamwork, unity, and hard work, Shrewsbury's Girls Volleyball Team has performed its best in matches against top contenders Milford, Westborough, and Marlborough. The Varsity is lead by Senior Co-Captains Thin Aung and Tabitha Kroll. The JV Team is led by Sophomores Kimberly Kroll and Caroline Royer. With new coaches Rebecca Stoll as head coach and Sarah Schmidt as JV coach, the team has still maintained its old traditions and principles. Everything else has been new this year: coaches, court, NCAA rules and some players. But the teams have adjusted well to the changes and have played games as if they'd been playing forever. Strengthened by serves and kills, there's "No Limits, No Boundaries, Fired up to WIN!!" "No Fishing'. "Jazzercise", "WOOF", "Sideout".

SHS Varsity Volleyball Seniors: Co-Captain Thin Aung, Jennifer Delaney, Co-Captain Tabitha Kroll, Sally Liang, Amy Ngo, Ayumi Shimokawa. Juniors: Jenn Guenette, Jenna Rutkowski; Sophomores: Shanni Chen, Shannon Stoll.

Boys' Soccer

The Boys' Varsity Soccer Team finished the season with a 4-11-3 record. However, the record does not accurately show the determination, heart, and "fire" that the team possessed. Captains were Eric Simas, Chris Pustis, Kevin Casey, and Sunny Dehal. Steady Eddie Urbec held the goal and posted a 1-0 shut out against Marlboro, one of the district finalists. Other strong contributors included Andrew Snowdon, Kenta Tsuda, Chris Kinback, Matt Ganas and Mike Bonanno. With twelve seniors graduating the path that lies ahead is a difficult one. However, the team will look for strong performances from Chris Kinback, Matt Ganas, Steve Sabourin, Tyler Warms and Shane Speicher for next year.

Girls' Soccer

Girls Varsity is coached by Chip DelPrete, assisted by Jess Carbone. Captains are Sarah Carbone, Monique Query and Carol Sogigian. The rest of the Varsity: Seniors Nicole Alarie, Stef DiReda, Gina Esposito, Caitlin Gardner; Juniors Sarah Batbouta, Katherine Comeau, Elise Hillman, Corrine Simisky, Jen Stencel; Sophomores Amanda Derosier, Lauren Duval, Heather Melander; Freshmen Jenna Donovan, Brittney Gould, Tarah Hunter, Allison Lubke, Macie Winship.

Junior Varsity Sophomores are: Julia Croteau, Jessica Farmer, Breana Keegan, Janina Nickle, Nikki Pasquale, Jenette Simisky, Jen Trudeau, Lindsey Tunak; Freshmen Courtney Bradley, Kathleen Camerato, Jen Carr, Abby Cosenza, Amanda Cosenza, Heather Dalke, Lauren Eknoian, Meaghan Gardner, Kelsey Loftus, Kelly McKinley, Emilee Pereira, Jen Russell, Suzanne Schmidt, Erin Van Ness.

The Shrewsbury Girls' Soccer Team surprised everyone this year. Despite the fact that the newspapers neglected to recognize the Colonials as a post-season prospect, the girls earned their first district berth since 1999, (the seniors' freshmen year). This season has brought the team closer together and the camraderie was evident in their style of play. The MIAA recognized the team at the conlcusion of post season play with the District One Sportsmanship Award, the first of its kind. The team also won the "MASH" Cup, a competition among Marlborough, Algonquin, Shrewsbury and Hudson. The tri-Captains, Sarah Carbone, Caol Sogigian and Monique Query lead the team both on and off the field.

Girls' Cross Country

Girls' Cross Country is coached by Ms. Holdash and Captained by Senior Heather Mantyla. Juniors are Akosua Dwumfour, Kelly George, Julie Goodness, Haniyah Kafel, Stephanie Lubke, Jen Stacey, Cassie Upton, Jill Whitney; Sophomores Miranda Cruz, Amanda L'Bassi, Mary McAllaster; Freshmen Tayana Carper, Elyse Gutekanst, Anne Rocheleau.

"Run to Friday" was the Girls' Cross Country rallying cry as they made their mark on the running scene this fall. The team trained hard all season under the leadership of Peggy "I mean Coach" Holdash, and awesome senior and Captain Heather Mantyla. The team not only built strength and endurance as they ran across town, but team unity and friendship as well. Sophomore Miranda Cruz led Shrewsbury as the front-runner, and was followed closely by junior Steph Lubke. A strong pack that vied for spots ensued, including juniors Jen Stacey, Julie Goodness, Akosua Dwumfour, Haniyah Kafel, Cassie Upton, and strong freshman Carolina Vega. Other key contributors were Heather Mantyla, Tayana Carper, Kelly George, Amanda L'Bassi, Mary McAllaster, Anne Rocheleau and Elyse Gutekanst.

Despite a disappointing loss to archrival Wachusett, the team left the rest of their competition in the dust, and closed the season with a solid 9-1 record, the best record for fall sports at SHS. Important meets were the Quabbin Invitational (2nd), and the Frankin Park Invitational (2nd). At Leagues, the team scored a solid 2nd place finish. A 3rd place finish at Districts earned them a trip to the State Meet for a third consecutive year. Wachusett was still edging them out, and Shrewsbury decided it was time for them to go down. States was a rainy, muddy day at Franklin Park in Boston, but the girls chose to "go for the green" and grabbed 10th place, finally achieving their goal of defeating Wachusett! "Two claps for Shrewsbury!"

Boys' Cross Country

After a decent season last year, the Colonial Boys rebounded to have an outstanding season in the cool Fall of 2002. The team put together its best season in years thanks mainly to the leadership and talent of their two accomplished Captains, Matt Kinback and Jeff Hayes.

The two were District All-Stars last year and continued their success, finishing in the top three in almost every dual meet. However, victory would not have been complete without the rest of the team. Junior Kurt Gustafson complemented the two seniors filling in the third slot on the varsity core of runners. The much-improved Gustafson gave even the fleet Hayes a run for his money. Junior Andy O'Brien backed up Gustafson consistently, coming in fourth overall for the team. Sophomore rookie John Mitchell rounded out the Colonial "five".

The remainder of the team does not go unheralded; their accomplishments were great, too. In some races, the 6-10 runners beat the opposing 1-5! Dave Muntz, also a newcomer to the team, had a fabulous year. Sophomore Andy Rossi picked up where he left off last season and Eric Mitchell did his best to close in on his brother John. Freshmen Gary Dodakian and Greg Goodness have a definite future and are sure to add to the Colonial's success.

Juniors Brian Buckley, Matt Dell'Erba, and Chuck Maguire made great strides in their attempts to break the twenty-minute milestone, an impressive feat for a beginning runner. Sophomore Jacques Aubuchon also improved upon last year's time. Freshmen Derek Neaz was near the varsity ranks in his first year of running. Alex Hamel ran hard and ended up near the twenty-minute barrier. Chris Theoharides was hampered by some knee problems, but persevered to get into shape. Omar Mahmoud joined the team later in the season, but made good progress.

The victories did not just come on race days. The season started much earlier than the first race with the Captains' practices "kicking off" in the first week of July. It was then that the true runners came into form and enhanced their skills. Physically demanding and rigorous workouts is what won so many races. Along with that was the guidance of Coach Jim Smith, who, in his twelfth year of coaching at Shrewsbury, claimed the 2002 team to be "one of the best".

Surely, this season will be a standard of measure for next year as the Colonials will lose three gifted seniors. Only hard work can try to fill the void.

CE: The English Connection

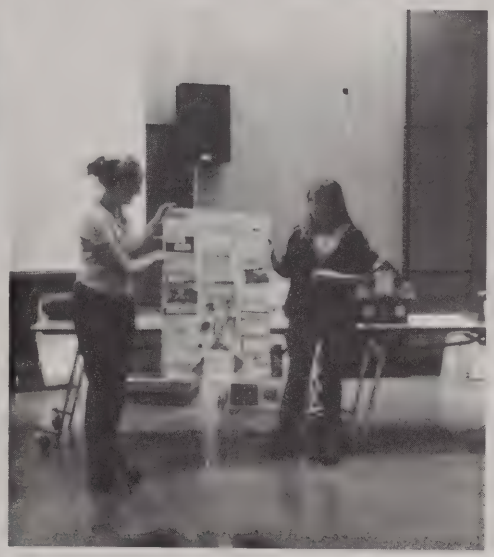
Mrs. Calameris' CP is Ms. Wolff, who as a 2006 Advisor and WC I teacher was very involved in Cultural Extravaganza. Mrs. Calimeris also teaches a number of freshmen classes. The result: an English project tie-in to Social Studies "Cultural Extravaganza"!

Some topics were suggested, but students could design their own as long as research was evident and the focus was on Japan and its culture. The projects were many and varied and took several days to present.

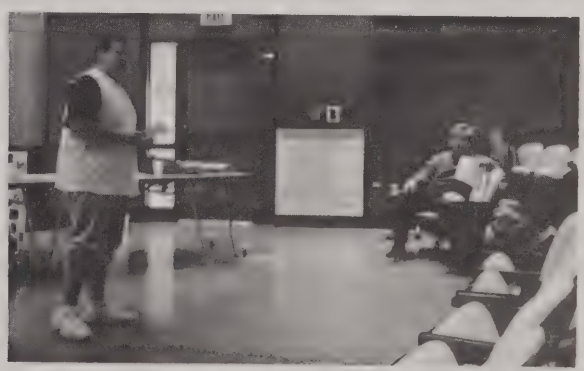


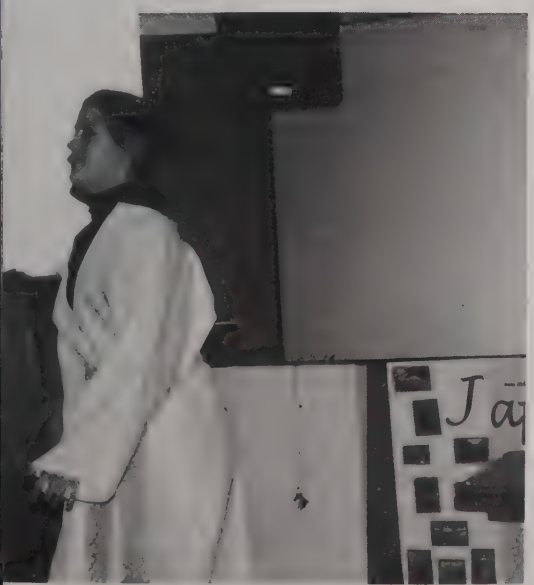
Dusk sets skies on fire
Rich crimson, gold horizon
Sun retreats 'til dawn

Snowflakes drift, float, fall
Roaring wind and crystals dance
Wet, cold, wonderland
Danielle Porcaro

Sky turns lonely grey
Willow tree no longer sways
Heart broken from death

Gold rose from concrete
Grew from a garden of weeds
Stands tall with no grief
Robino Africa





Deep, silent water
Barely moves on the surface
In the depths, currents
Derek Leab

The thunderbolt falls
The noise corrupts the silence
Anger is thunder

Volcanoes erupt
Lava becomes unharnessed
I feel the anger

The Freshmen Cultural Extravaganza

On December 12th it snowed! Enough to cause a one hour delay and cancellation of one hour of workshops. But, the rest of the day long program took place. The entire class witnessed the African dancers (one of whom actually attended SHS some years ago), a favorite program. The audience participation was a high point! Sally Liang '03 presented a workshop on Chinese History; Author Dr. Smith gave visual representations of the world's population problems. Mr.Terli spoke of his native Liberia's problems in the modern world. Two Chinese musicians, Kathy & Jenny, performed on the erdu and the dulcimer (an instrument with over 300 strings). Senior Tushar Patel and his sister Tejal ('02 Graduate of SHS) demonstrate modern and classical Indian dance.

Chinese, Indian, Japanese & African Cultures at SHS

Ms. Yurkinas shared experiences from her sabbatical in China; Mrs. Bjork told of her last summer's trip to Uganda: the wild game preserves, the schools, and traditional customs. Ms. Kavanagh (Mrs. Burkett's sister) spent two years in Guinea as a Peace Corp volunteer. There was lots to learn and to see in her workshop. Victoria James' father provided "sushi" at the end of the day cultural food tasting. Lion dancers and and martial arts was another stage presentation. The Presentation Room hosted another of the day's favorites: "Acupuncture". Ms. Jones demonstrated the skill on husband, Mr. Secino. The acupuncture figure helped students to visualize the concept. Three speakers shared their views on modern Asian Issues with students. Sophomore Sakeena Kazmi interprets Indian dance in traditional costume.

"As I crossed the bridge, the sound of 'Ulla, ulla, ulla, ulla', ceased. It was, as it were, cut off. The silence came as a thunderclap." H.G.Wells The War of the Worlds.

The first time we put a Fisher-Price truck into your hand, expecting you to run it on the floor, you turned it upside down to inspect with your chubby eight-month-old fingers how the wheels and axles worked. It was clear then you would make your own unique path in this world.

As you cross this bridge, James, we your family wish you the best of possibilities. In the silence, hone your talents and appreciate the depths of your gifts.

Love always,
Drena

Jen-
16 years of being sisters and never once have you let me down. You have been there for me whenever I've needed you as an advice giver, a shoulder to cry on, or just a plain old best friend. We have shared everything from clothes to secrets and I will never forget all the inside jokes that we laughed about for hours on end. Even though we have been through so many fights we have made it through and been there for each other no matter what. I look up to you more than anyone and can't think of anybody else I would rather be like. Things will be a lot different around here when you leave for college. If I have a problem I won't have anyone to wake up in the middle of the night just to talk about things. I won't have a best friend that lives in the next room. But even though you're not around I know you are there for me no matter what. I love you and I'm so proud of you! You will always be my big sister.
Love always,
Kelly

Be true to your own beliefs and principles, doing your best. Never take for granted the simple joys in life.

MEGAN:

It seems like only yesterday when we brought you home for the very first time. You were so small and so totally dependent on us for everything. We've enjoyed watching you grow through the many phases of childhood. You've brought us so much joy and happiness. You are a wonderful daughter and sister and we are all so very, very proud of you. As you begin this new chapter in your life, remember we are still right beside you every step of the way. Keep smiling, honey! We love you.

Love, Dad, Mom, Lauren, Erin, and Rudy

I spent many days struggling with what I would write as I wanted it to be perfect. How do you accurately convey all of the feelings you have for someone that has been a major part of your life for over 17 years in a brief message? I don't know if I can or if it will even come out right, but I'll give it my best shot!

Ronnie, you are a very talented and gifted person. You are helpful, caring and giving. You meet challenges and adversity head on. You don't shy away from a tough issue or problem. You never complete a project half way or do just enough to get by. You always exhibit a positive attitude. You constantly show your maturity by the decisions and choices you make. You are responsible and trustworthy.

I could go on and on with the praise, but I don't think I can give you the justice you deserve. All I can say is that I admire you and I'm very proud of you and of all your accomplishments. I will always support you and be there for you when needed. I know in my heart that you will go far and you will do whatever it takes to realize your dreams and aspirations. I wish you the best in all of your future endeavors.

It is early innings and there is plenty of game left! So enjoy the moment, cherish the past, have a bright outlook, play fair, play hard, do your best and most of all... have fun!

Always remember that you are very special and dear to my heart and I care the whole world about you! With all my love, Dad hshshs

Congratulations, Sarah Jean!

You've gone from the
Merry-go-round to the BIG time.
We are so proud of you!
Best of Luck in the years ahead!
Much Love,
Mom & Shaine

These past two years have been the best years of my life. I have you to thank for that. Whenever I was down you picked me back up. You have always been there for me and I love you so much for that. You are the best girlfriend any guy could have. There is no possible way to ever get mad at you. I am lucky to have you. You are the most beautiful, smart and athletic girl I have ever met. No one can compare to you. Don't ever let anyone tell you different. Thank you for just being you, because that is who I love. I know everything will work through college and we will still be going strong for a long time. I can't picture us ever being apart. Remember, I will always love you.

In the short time that we have been together we have created a lifetime of memories. Though times were not always good, the smiles always found a way to outweigh the tears. I hope you realize how proud I am of you, and thankful for the support you've given me. You're someone who I know I can always rely on and trust beyond belief. My love for you will only grow stronger as time passes by, and with every smile that comes across your face. With so many ups and downs on this roller coaster of life, you are the reason I am able to make it back up. Congratulations sweetheart, I knew you could make it. And remember, it only gets better from here.

Think freely, Smile often.
Rediscover old friends. Make new ones.
Tell those you love that you do.
Dream. Hope. Grow. Give. Give in.
Pick some daisies. Share them.
Keep a promise. Laugh heartily.
Sing. Dance. Reach out. Let someone in.
Hug a child. Kiss. Slow down. Hold a hand.
See a sunrise. Listen to the rain.
Trust life. Share faith. Enjoy.
Make some mistakes. Learn from them.
Love everyone. Explore the unknown.
Celebrate life and love.

Draw a crazy picture, write a nutty poem,
Sing a mumble-gumble song,
whistle through your comb.
Do a loony-goony dance,
'Cross the kitchen floor,
Put something silly in the world
that ain't been there before.

Your Life Is Now

Written by: John Mellencamp and George M. Green

See the moon roll across the stars
See the seasons turn like a heart
Your father's days are lost to you
This is your time here to do what you will do

Your life is now your life is now your life is now
In this undiscovered moment
Lift your head up above the crowd
We could shake this world
If you would only show us how
Your life is now

Would you teach your children to tell the truth
Would you take the high road if you could choose
Do you believe you're a victim of a great compromise
'Cause I believe you could change your mind and change our lives

Would you teach your children to tell the truth
This is your time here to do what you will do

We always have fun reaching for the stars!!

Sam,

These last two years have brought us closer then ever. Through all our differences we managed to find our strongest similarities that will tie us together for life. I'm so excited for you to be moving on to college just sad that you have to go so soon. You are an extremely talented, intelligent, and caring person that I've looked up to all my life. I hope nothing changes between us once you leave, Wherever it is that you are going I wish you the best of luck with whatever you do and always know that I'll be here for you always even if I am your little sister.

I love you Sam.

All my love,

Dana

We are so proud of our beautiful daughter as she heads out into the world.
Let us tell you what she is like as 18 years of her life unfurled.

What qualities does this lovely daughter possess?
Opinionated and determined, we must confess.

Our social butterfly is on her phone,
"Let's have a party – it's no fun alone!"

Or it's off to the mall, there's shopping to be done.
More shoes to buy, she really must run.

Organized, hard-working, and very smart.
Everyone who knows her thinks she has such a big heart.

A truer friend you'll never find,
Compassionate, caring and so very kind.

So soar to the heights, our darling Jeanette.
There is no challenge that cannot be met.

P.S. Always remember you will be attached to our hearts forever.

Jessica,

Let me just take this time to say that I am so immensely proud of you! You gave it everything you had for your entire school career. You never took the easy way out. You deserve every bit of greatness that comes your way.

Jess, we have had so many great times. Remember the proms, and Hampton? There are so many more times to be had.

Jess, you have helped me so much in the time we have known each other, especially this past year. For that I will always be grateful. Without you, where would I be?

Jess, finally let me say something that may or may not be assumed, but I've been meaning to say... Jess, you are my best friend. I love you. Tom.

I am so lucky to have a friend like you. We've gone through so much together. It would take a lifetime to even mention the things that we've done. We've cried together, laughed together and grown together. Thank you for always being there for me and believing in me. I never would have made it through these years without you. Now that we say goodbye to high school, we would never say goodbye to our friendship. We will always be friends forever.

Thank you for always being there for me and never forget that I will do the same for you. Friends Forever.

Senior Jason Walker took both these aerial pictures, several years apart, of course! He combined two of his talents: his love of flying and his interest in photography. Then: Han Hong (1987); Nick Giannino, Charlie Ngo, Mike Byrne, Todd Tieuli and Nick Lake enjoying pizza; We can only say that the "then" group picture is of the Paton School fourth grade graduation; If ONLY this were color: you would see that RJ has green hair, James sprouts red horns, Andy R. has blue hair, and Andy D, red.

Then & Now...

This page brings this edition to a close. Of course, there will be a spring "extra" which will cover the spring events and sports, the Musical and Graduation to be published and distributed next Fall.

Seniors responsible for the Senior Portrait Section and the Zodiac/Baby Pictures are Divya Minisandram and Natasha Srivastava.. The Senior Section used the PageMaker 7.0 format to allow senior names to run vertically along side the portraits and to organize the senior signatures. The Zodiac section includes each "sign" worked in the paper-cut technique created by Kevin Kolbe '06. He shared this skill during Cultural Extravaganza (see the dragon on this page) and agreed to do twelve more for this very different Yearbook section. We are grateful to Mrs. Osborn for tweaking the copiers to produce mirror images of the paper-cuts. The Zodiac section is the most labor intensive ever undertaken in the last decade of Colonials published. We are indebted to those who "cut and pasted"!

Juniors who worked on the Junior segment were Tushar Patel and Kara Snyder-Gerardi.

Sophomores who worked on underclassmen layouts and design (and numbering all those small pictures) were: Ilgaz Irikan,Colleen Kennedy, Kristin Livingstone, Eric Pham, Katie Reynolds, Caroline Royer, Vinh Tran.

Thanks to Mrs. Krause, Mr. O'Connell, Mr. Gutekanst, Mr. Harmon, Mrs Gustafson (Kurt's Mom), Lauren DiBenedetto '03, Mrs. Calimeris and her English Classes, Eleanor Broer '04, Mr. Cornacchioli, Mr. McKinley (Kelly's Dad), Tech Assistants Ms. Magat, Mrs. Naumiec & Mr. Yam; Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Rossignol for the help necessary to acquire pictures, layout ideas, text material, information, and some seniors! Mrs. O'Leary is the Yearbook Advisor.

Ten years ago, the SHS Colonial Yearbook concluded at Page 208. This is Page 280! The Underclassmen section contained 36 pages (but that included the Eighth Grade!). In 2003, there are 38 pages needed. The F, F & C section contained 32 pages; this year there are eighty-five! The '93 Colonial cost $25. The 2003 Yearbook cost $30.

Publisher is Jostens. Paper is 100 lb Gloss with a sewn binding. Rich gold is applied to the cover. Font is Lydian.
